Joe Lee, Guest Conductor

Resident Conductor of the Huntsville Symphony Orchestra, Music Director of Murfreesboro Symphony
and Huntsville Youth Orchestras,
Music Director of the University Orchestra of Sewanee:
“The University of the South”, and Principal Conductor of the Campamento Internacional de Musica Pochote (Costa Rica).

We are excited to welcome Mr. Joe Lee as our guest conductor this year. He is highly acclaimed and has great experience with youth orchestras. His reputation is that “he is great with kids”. We look forward to his entertaining and fun style on the podium. Mr. Lee is bringing with him 8 students from Costa Rica who study with him there. These students are very serious about their playing, and it will be an honor to have them with us.

Robert J. Bradshaw will be our Composer in Residence and will bring a brand new work commissioned for this summer camp orchestra, to be performed at the Friday concert! He will also lead workshops in composition.

“Mr. Bradshaw’s music is well crafted, thoughtful and emotional with his unique voice always heard.”

Gerald Dolan
Northshore Youth Symphony Orchestra

Robert J. Bradshaw’s compositions have been performed and recorded throughout the world, from Bangkok, Thailand to Sydney, Australia. In America, his music has been heard in many prestigious venues, including the Lincoln Center, and during the Kennedy Center’s 2010 International VSA Festival at the Shakespeare Theater Company’s Sidney Harmon Hall.
