

Council Notes-July 13, 2011

For questions or information, contact Town Hall at 886-2177 or Council Members at signalmountaintn.gov.

- At its regular July meeting, the Planning Commission completed its final review of staff comments on the subdivision regulations. The document will now be sent to a specialist in municipal conservation regulations and zoning for a final edit. A public hearing will follow.
- Public Works reports that the new traffic signal should be operational this week.
- Artist Valerie Gibson will beautify a neglected courtyard of the MACC this summer with a mural and landscaping. Volunteers to paint, prune, or weed-whack are needed as are donations of painting supplies, drop cloths, brushes, and fresh exterior paint. For information, call the MACC at 886-1959.
- As part of the Library's Summer Reading program, dancers from the GPS dance company, Terpsichord, led by Laurel Zahbrosky, will demonstrate and teach simple movements on July 19th at 11am on the lower level of the library. Children of all ages are welcome.
- Libby Robertson will discuss her experiences as a missionary and US A.I.D. worker in Africa as well as the book "Land of a Thousand Hills", by author and friend, Ros Carr, at the Library on July 21st at 6pm.
- The town wishes to thank the Alexian Village, Sweet Gipsy, the Cookie Lady, the MACC Foundation, Jerry Pala, the Jetstream Grill, and the Lions Club for donating kitchen equipment for use by the MACC cafeteria with special thanks to high-school students, "Alive in You", for cleaning it.
- The MACC auditorium is air conditioned and ready for summer programs thanks to efforts by Bill Leonard, Jerry Pala and George Davenport. The MACC also owes a special thanks to Austin Youngblood for choosing the MACC for his Eagle Scout project—he completely restored the guitar studio.
