

Council Notes-February 15, 2012

For questions or information, contact Town Hall at 886-2177 or Council Members at signalmountaintn.gov.

- The Alexian Village has postponed its request to present to the Design Review Commission its plans to build a 100,000 square foot, 5-story nursing home facility until late spring. The Alexian is currently awaiting issuance of a Certificate of Need from the Tennessee Health Services and Development Agency Board.
- Tomorrow, February 16th at 6:30pm, local author Michael Ringering will discuss his book “Six Bits” and sign copies at the Library.
- For those with a general understanding of French and the desire to improve it, Ginny Harris, formerly a French teacher at Baylor, is offering free conversation classes at the Library each Wednesday at 2:45pm.
- Performances of Signal Mountain Playhouse’s winter production, “The Butler Did It...Again,” will take place at the MACC every Friday and Saturday during the month of February. Dessert and coffee will be served from 6:45-7:45. Curtain is at 8 o’clock.
- On Friday, March 9th, from 7-9pm WinterSong 2012 at the MACC will feature a concert with award-winning songwriter Louisa Branscomb. A songwriting workshop will be held the next day, Saturday, March 10th, from 9am-4:30pm.
- The Mountain Arts Community Center has two board openings. The MACC Board is advisory to the MACC director, the town manager and the town council to provide and facilitate policies, general improvements, programs and other functions to benefit the advancement and success of the MACC. To apply, contact the town or download a board application from the town website.
- The Tree Board is soliciting Arbor Day sponsors to finance the purchase of trees for children to plant at Thrasher, Nolan, and Bachman on Arbor Day. To sponsor a tree, contact Noah Long at 886-3820 or drop by the Town Hall.
