

Council Notes-March 14, 2012

For questions or information, contact Town Hall at 886-2177 or Council Members at signalmountaintn.gov.

- The Planning Commission held a workshop meeting on Thursday, March 8th to continue work on Article 4 of the Subdivision Regulations. The Commission will continue to meet each Thursday at 6pm until all work on the regulations is completed.
- The council thanks the Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts who assisted the Tree Board on March 3rd to give away 300 oak seedlings at the Recycle Center. The Tennessee Division of Forestry, in recognition of Signal Mountain's designation for the second year as a Tree City USA, provided the seedlings.
- The council thanks those sponsors whose generosity made Arbor Day 2012 a success: Enterprise Rent-A-Car; Citizens Tri-County Bank; Southern Star Restaurant; Prudential Realty; the Mountain Business Association; FSG Bank; Mike Taylor; Dr. Jonathan Welch; DeHart Tree Service; Ewton Fence Company; ProSigns and Graphics Company.
- Water and Recreation Department heads, William Sanders and Jarred Thompson recently completed a 3-day TN Association of Utility Districts certification workshop on how to keep contaminants out of the town's water supply.
- The SM Community Guild is beginning work on the 2012-2014 Signal Mountain Telephone Directory. Residents are asked to inform the Guild of changes in land lines or cell phone numbers by emailing them to signalmtnguild.com.
- Be sure and take advantage of "Live at the MACC" programs this spring. On March 16th and 17th at 7pm, "First Draft Festival of Five Minutes Plays" by Kevin Bartolomucci and Steve Disbrow will be performed; Skwalking Heads Theater will present "How to Eat Like a Child" on Mar. 30th, 31st and April 1st. and, don't miss Dan Landrum and Stephen Siefert on hammer and mountain dulcimer in concert on April 7th at 7pm.
