

Council Notes-October 03, 2012

For questions or information, contact Town Hall at 886-2177 or Council Members at signalmountaintn.gov.

- It's an event-filled weekend in the town. Beginning tomorrow evening, Thursday, October 4th the SMMHS Homecoming Parade will begin at Town Hall at 6:30pm and travel up Ridgeway to end at McDonald's.
- The Signal Mountain Hodgepodge opens this Friday, October 5th, and continues through Saturday. The event, organized and operated by Paul Smith of the Chattanooga Market, will be located in the Town gym. Hours are 10am-5pm. Over 75 vendors will offer fun, food, and entertainment. Bring the family and start Christmas shopping early!
- This Saturday, Oct. 6th from 9am-1pm, Signal Mountain will participate in the annual Tennessee River Rescue. Meet at the MACC at 9am to volunteer. For information contact Mary Beth Sutton at 423-413-0471 or go to caribbeancleanwater@gmail.com.
- For the final time this year, the backhoe will be available at the Recycle Center to load mulch on Sat., Oct. 6th from 8am-2pm. The cost is $5 a truckload.
- The Town Gym will be closed for the remainder of October to accommodate the installation of a new gym floor.
- At its Sept. 25th meeting, the Design Review Commission approved signage for Steve Adams, owner of Adams Automotive and Performance, which is moving into the former Eberle Tire location.
- The Tree Board, at its Sept. 27th meeting, discussed plans for an upcoming service day with SMMHS students to remove invasive species from Memorial Park and to mulch trees at Nolan. The Board also discussed plans for a native tree sale on Saturday, Nov. 3rd at the Recycle Center.
- The Design Review Commission has an opening. Applications may be downloaded from the town website. For information, contact Honna Rogers at 886-2177.