

Council Notes-January 8, 2014

For questions or information, contact the Town Hall at 886-2177 or council members at signalmountaintn.gov.

- The Planning Commission has rescheduled its regular January 2 meeting to Thursday, January 9. The Southeast TN Development District will assist the Commission in its continuing efforts to review and update definitions in the Zoning Ordinance.
- The council's next work session will be Friday, January 10, at 10am. Tentatively on the agenda, the council will review zoning definitions; contributions to the vehicle replacement fund; a replacement motor for a public works vehicle; and an amendment to the Artech contract for engineering services at the public works facility.
- The Library is considering offering classes in Spanish and German. Classes would be held weekly for an hour at the cost of $10 each. If interested, email Karin Glendenning at kglendenning@signalmountaintn.gov.
- Bruce Palmer will offer Creative Writing Classes at the Library on Mondays at 6pm. Call the Library at 886-7323 to register.
- Clif Cleaveland will review "Billy Lynn's Long Half-Time Walk" by Ben Fountain at 12:15pm at the January 13 meeting of the Library Book Club. On January 18, local author Gary Highfield will sign copies of his new book, "When Want to Becomes Have to" at noon on January 18, also at the Library.
- John C. Wynne, vice president of the Signal Mountain Historical Committee, will give a talk, "Early Days on Signal Mountain", on January 16 at 6:30pm at the Library
- The town has openings on the Board of Zoning Appeals, Tree Board, and Personnel Committee. An electrical contractor is needed on the Board of Adjustments and Appeals. Applications may be downloaded from the town website. For more information contact the town manager.
