

Council Notes-January 29, 2014

For questions or information, contact the Town Hall at 886-2177 or council members at signalmountaintn.gov.

- The Public Works Department Public Works has begun round 2 of leaf pickup beginning in Area 4. Due to rain and freezing temperatures this fall and winter, leaf pickup has been unusually slow. The crews are progressing as best they can. To determine where the leaf crews are currently working, call the Public Works Department at 886-2177, ext. 2.
- The Planning Commission will meet in a workshop on February 6th to continue its review of the Zoning Ordinance with planner Jordan Clark of the Southeast TN Development District.
- On January 30, George Derryberry will discuss and sign copies of his book, "Path of Valor: A Marine's Story," at 6pm at the Library.
- The Signal Mountain Library will offer Basic/Conversational Spanish with instructor Carol Bird in two 8-week sessions during February and March. The first session for students, ages 7 to 12, will be held on Mondays from 6-7pm. A second session for adults will be held 2:30-3:30pm on Tuesdays. Fees are $10 per class, payable each week. Pre-registration is required. Contact the Library at 886-7323 or kglendenning@signalmountaintn.gov to register.
- The council congratulates Public Works Director Loretta Hopper and Engineering Tech Clif Fite for completing the TN Department of Environment and Conservation's Level II Design Principles course with honors, earning 16 professional development hours each.
- The Signal Mountain Arts and Community Center has a new website, signalmacc.org. Check it out. There's still time to register for classes.
- The town has openings on the Board of Zoning Appeals, Tree Board, Personnel Committee, and Board of Adjustments and Appeals. Applications may be downloaded from the town website. For more information contact the town manager.
