

RESOLUTION NO. R2010-79

A RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING AND COMMENDING JAY CASAVANT FOR THE DELIGHT HE HAS BROUGHT TO SIGNAL MOUNTAIN CHILDREN AND PARENTS ALIKE ON HALLOWEEN

WHEREAS, Jay Casavant is a long-time resident at 320 Signal Mountain Boulevard in Signal Mountain, TN; and,

WHEREAS, 15 years ago, Jay Casavant began creating a modest Halloween light display with two strings of orange lights in the front yard of his home in a little dogwood tree; and,

WHEREAS, Jay Casavant, relying on his instinct and his creative gifts, added a few more strings of lights the next Halloween--and the next--and the next--and then came the cemetery, the inflatables, the cobwebs, the smoke machine, the soundtracks, and the maze; and,

WHEREAS, Jay Casavant plans and anticipates Halloween all year long planning the display to keep it unique and gathering giveaways for children; and,

WHEREAS, Jay Casavant welcomes families by car or on foot all through the Halloween season who look and marvel at his display and walk through the maze; and,

WHEREAS, Jay Casavant partners with the Alexian Village Halloween Children's Party and conducts guided tours complete with candy and prizes for the children; and,

WHEREAS, this Halloween, October 31st, 2010, Jay Casavant hosted over 500 delighted children at his extraordinary display and maze;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Town Council of Signal Mountain, Tennessee recognizes and commends Jay Casavant for his Halloween wonderland and encourages the citizens of the town to do the same.
